- Enrollment report presented showing slight decrease in enrollment numbers

Legislative Update – Liz Vogt, IDoA

- Legislative initiatives for 2025 presented
 - The legislative initiatives for 2025 focus on non-fiscal impact bills aimed at enhancing services for older adults.
 - Key initiatives include:
 - The Senior Citizen Property Tax Act aims to streamline eligibility processes by transferring responsibilities to the Department on Aging.
 - Legislation to strengthen transfer and discharge protections in long-term care facilities will impose fines on facilities that do not comply with hearing officer decisions regarding resident readmissions.
 - New requirements for long-term care facilities to have Automated External Defibrillators (AEDs) will be introduced to improve emergency preparedness and response.

Fiscal/Budget Update – Emily Howerton, IDoA

- FY26 budget address scheduled for February 19
 - The FY26 budget address will be delivered by the governor on February 19.
 - Current revenue projections are down, indicating potential budget constraints.
 - A Health and Human Services briefing will follow the budget address to discuss implications for relevant programs.

- Revenue projections are down
 - Revenue projections for the upcoming fiscal year indicate a decrease compared to previous estimates.
 - This decline may impact funding for various state programs and services, including those for aging and community care.
 - Stakeholders are encouraged to prepare for potential budget constraints and prioritize essential services in light of the reduced revenue.
- Daily billing available, weekly billing encouraged
 - Daily billing allows providers to submit claims on a daily basis for quicker cash flow.
 - Weekly billing is encouraged to maintain a steady revenue stream and reduce delays in payments.
 - Providers should be aware that payments from the comptroller may slow down due to decreased revenue projections.

IATP – Illinois Care Connections Update – Jennifer Hebel, IDoA

- Record year with over 3,000 referrals for Illinois Care Connections
- Pause on new referrals to allow IATP to catch up

National Core Indicator State of the Workforce Survey – Jennifer Hebel, IDoA
