

Barry G. Lowy became the Director of the Office of State Guardian with the Illinois Guardianship and Advocacy Commission (GAC) in January 2017. He assists with GAC's legislative initiatives and has developed the online training course required by the Probate Act for certain guardians. Prior to this position he was with Equip for Equality from February 1999 to January 2017. He has litigation experience across multiple subject matters dealing with persons with disabilities and has represented individuals in both state probate court and federal class action cases. He has a law degree from Tulane University School of Law and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Lake Forest College.